

Here's the Bunny

Here's the bunny with the ears so funny. Help the child hold up two fingers to be the bunny.

Here's the hole in the ground. Make a circle with both hands for the hole.

When a noise she hears, The bunny (child) bends its ears by bending the two fingers toward the thumb.

She picks up her ears, Help the child stick their fingers straight up in the air in a quick snapping motion.

And jumps in the hole in the ground!
Have the two fingers jump into the "hole" you made.
Once the bunny is in the "hole", gently squeeze the child's fingers.
